

To: 2008 Presidential Hopefuls Serving In The United States Senate

From: Voters In Iowa, The First In The Nation Caucus State

Judge Samuel Alito is a solid pick to serve on the United States Supreme Court. As the First in the Nation Caucus state, Iowa voters will closely monitor your actions in the Senate. Judge Alito is highly qualified. He has served on the U.S. 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals, is a former U.S. Attorney and worked under both the U.S. Solicitor General and Attorney General. His record demonstrates his comprehension and adherence to upholding the Constitution.

Judge Alito is a good judge in both his demeanor and his record and he deserves your support. Iowans will look to your vote on this confirmation as part of their consideration to support a candidate in the 2008 Iowa Presidential Caucus.
